CLARA SMITH, FAVORITE
BLUES SINGER COMING, TO THE BOOKER NEXT WEEK

Clara Smith, the favorite blues singer and Columbia Record star, will be the feature attraction at the Booker Washington Theatre next week. Clara has always been a big winner at this house. She made her first appearance here a few years ago with one of Bob Russell's productions and nearly stopped the show. She has been going big ever since. Others on the bill will be The Brownie Duo, two girls; Sledge and Sledge, a man and woman in fun and frolics; and Strong and Banks in a farcical comedy. The program stacks up as a good entertainer.

RUSSELL & GRIMES IN RETURN
ENGAGEMENT AT THE B. W.

Bob Russell's Company, headed by Billiken Grimes, is presenting a good entertaining show at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. The production is a mixture of fun, dance and music. Grimes is the leading comedian. The comedy centers on a runaway wife who is followed to the big city, where the country folks do humorous things and see strange sights. There are many good specialty numbers featuring Rogers and Rogers in fancy dances. Madam Brannon with the blues. Evelyn Redding, Mildred Grimes, Billy McWaters, Billie McKinnon, Carrie Williams and Grant Kay in numbers that score from either an artistic or humorous point. A quartet sings some southern melodies. After a baroque dance with guns, at the end of the traffic show, direct with an eye-bling song and dance.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

THE RETINA SKYDOME

The Retina Skydome has reopened for the summer season and will produce picture features in conjunction with the "Musical" theatre. The Skydome will also present vaudeville features on the stage. This Saturday the stage attraction will be "The Manhattan Girls," a company of five, direct from the Gayety, presenting a musical comedy with singing, dancing and plenty of jazz. The picture feature will be Harry Carey's latest western, "Beyond the Border."

Buffalo Bill Jr. will be seen in the western play "Full Speed" on Sunday, and there will be special vaudeville on the stage. "The Tenth Woman" will be the feature on Thursday. It is a story of ranch life and city life, enough of each to please on all. It is full of action, love, romance and portrays in detail the life of the modern flapper. The story is centered just as the characters are. The cast consists of June Marlowe, Beverly Bayne, John Roche, Raymond Chandler, "Buddy" Post and Gilbert Holmes.

THE STAR

"On The Stroke of Ten" will be the Star Theatre special this Saturday. Madam Brannon, Mary Carr and Kenneth Harlan are the featured players. The story deals with the home, interesting life of the simple mountain folk in Ashland Valley, as well as with the social whirl of New York. The story is centered just as the characters are. It tells of a man who discovers that the girl he is in love with is the daughter of Wall Street's greatest financier. He thinks that she has been in league with the great man's secretary to obtain from him the country property which is to be used as the site of a gam den. In a tremendous scene he scores and thames her, but in the end Love finds its way.

Hoot Gibson will be seen in a fast action picture, "Taming The West," on Sunday. Big Boy Williams will be featured in "The Avenger" on Monday, a western thriller. Richard Talmadge in "Tearing Through," a domestic drama, "The Unmarried Mother," will be the double feature on Tuesday. Evelyn Brent will be seen in "Alias Mary Flynn" on Wednesday.

The feature attraction next Thursday and Friday will be "Seven Chances." It is a swift, lighthearted and is delightfully acted by an excellent cast. Norma Shearer plays Marjorie. New, a society girl who is persecuted by her fiancé, Harry Mallory (Conrad Nagel), to take a chance of finding a minister on the train, so that he can accompany him as his wife to his new Navy post in his wife's place. Of course, the difficulty of finding the minister forms the center of the amusing plot, but other interesting trouble and trouble-makers enter in. Another feature will be Buster Keaton in "Seven Chances."

THE COMET

"School For Wives" will be presented at the Comet Theatre this Saturday. It is the story of a wealthy girl who marries a poor artist, renouncing her father's fortune because it is "tainted." An excellent cast headed by the picture's leading player, Conway Tearle, interprets the various roles. The picture is said to be a welcome combination of thriller, color, action, suspense and romance. Tom Mix in "Riders of the Purple Sage" will be the Sunday special. It is a picturesque romance of the West of forty years ago. Mix plays the role of a "wildcat" off-spring cowboy who comes riding forth to avenge his sister, kidnapped by an unscrupulous band of desperadoes in a thrilling episode in which he displays his superb horsemanship, his skill as the lariat and his quickness in handling a brace of six shooters. Thursday, a marvel deed, in "The Silent Pal," on Monday. "Flattery" on Tuesday, and Constance Talmadge in "Her Night of Romance" on Wednesday are all big features. The attraction for next Thursday and Friday will be "The Spaniard." Ricardo Cortez is the leading star. Jetta Goudal and Noah Beery complete the trio of players featured in the production which is based on the novel of the same title by Juanita Savage. "The Spaniard" has to do with the taming of a beautiful Irish girl, a born flirt, by a bull fight.

THEATRES-CONTINUED

or who turns out to be a Spanish nobleman. Two bull fights are featured in this production.

THE JESTER
"The Girl of Gold" will be featured at the Jester Theatre this Saturday. This is a sensational play of society with many unusual situations and spectacular scenes, one of which is a society ball staged on the sixteenth level of a gold mine. Malcolm McGregor has the leading masculine role opposite Florence Vidor.

"Cheaper to Marry" will be presented on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The picture tells a most sophisticated story of the manner in which two men manage their woman's life. Based around a man's contempt for conventions, the picture with its startling ending, brings up with realism that "free love" does not pay. The basic story is a powerful one—it is vivid, dramatic, bright and entertaining. In the cast are Lewis Stone, Conrad Nagel, Paulette Goddard, Marguerite De La Motte, Louise Fazenda, Claude Gillingwater and Richard Wayne.

Priscilla Dean will be seen in "The Crimson Runner" on Wednesday. The feature for next Thursday and Friday will be Irene Rich in "A Lost Lady." In the part of Margaret Weston, beautiful, young and married to an elderly railroad magnate, Irene Rich is called upon to enact the gradual demoralization of a high-strung woman, whose passionate yearning for the bygone world of love proves her nemesis. It drags her down through the mud of vicious habits and questionable associations, stripping her of everything beautiful, until the invincible soul of her fights the last remnants of demoralization and leaves her safe and content, once more the lovely lady.

THE CRITERION

Dorothy Devore heads a strong cast in "The Narrow Street" at the Criterion Theatre this Saturday. The story hinges on the woman who changes her even, dull temperament of a conservative bachelor whose life has been a succession of uninteresting occurrences. After several years without knowing how to define a thrill, he finds he has so many during a single day that he has lost his counting then.

Tom Mix in "Riders of the Purple Sage" will be the Sunday feature. In this latest picture, Mix outdoes himself in the originality and ingenuity of his feats of horsemanship. Tony, of course, does his share of the work. "Let Women Alone" will be the Wednesday special. This is an amusing and fast-moving comedy-drama dealing with the adventures of a "go-getter" insurance agent, his energetic mother and a capable interior decorator—a woman.

"Argentine Love" with Bebe Daniels and Ricardo Cortez will be the Thursday feature.

THE VENUS

Buffalo Bill Jr. will be seen in "Bringing Home the Bacon" at the Venus Theatre this Saturday. There will also be four acts of vaudeville. "The Thief of Baghdad" will be presented on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. This photograph plays a story hereof set on the screen.

This extraordinary picture is set in the equilibrium of the critics in every city in which it has been presented. It is the crescendo photograph, it is a fantastical story of love and adventure laid in an imaginary world of fancy abounding with critics, generally have called unbelievable wonders. Some of the outstanding features are:

"The Magic Carpet" that sails across the house-tops. The Undersea City of Crystal where the King of the Forest of Shalimar lives. The Cloak of Invisibility. The Winged Hero that flies up to the clouds. The Living Dragon in the Valley of Monsters.

Betty Compson will be seen in "Locked Doors" next Thursday and Friday. The story is one of a beautiful young girl who marries an architect many years her senior. The marriage is a loveless affair, for the father, entered upon more for a fact of marrying her, than for a crippled father, a comfortable home than anything else. A great deal of the picture is a thriller in the picture.

THE OLYMPIA

"One Year to Live" will be the Olympia Theatre feature this Saturday. Allen Pringle, Antonio Moreno, Dorothy Mackall-form a true all-star cast, one of the strongest combinations in years.

Richard Falmagne will be seen in "The Fighting Demon" on Sunday. It is only his third picture, but it is a very amusing and diverting comedy which encounters no shipboard which Dick encounters on shipboard on his way to South America are excellently worked out, and they prove a rich comedy vein from which Director Art Rosson has dug all the best possible comedy. There is a fight scene is remarkably well-timed and contains a great kick.

"Secrets of the Desert" will be shown on Monday; and "The Goose Hangs High" on Wednesday. The feature on Thursday and Friday will be "The Breath of Scandal" in an absorbing story about a neglected mother, a millionaire, a flapper daughter, Betty Byrke, featured with Lou Thelma, Fay Bainter, Patsy Miller, Myrtle Norman, Jack Mulhall and Phyllis Haver.

THE CASINO

Ashton Dearhold will be seen as "The Casino" in the western drama "The Cowboy Prince" at the Casino Theatre this Sunday.

William Desmond is the star in "The Modesty" on Sunday and Monday. An almost unbroken record of more than 15 miles an hour for a millionaire business man who has become fearless in his effort to win the girl back and instead of a million dollars he placed his now married fiancée who married another man, is told that

Indianapolis A.B.'s Open Series of 5 Games Saturday

Hoosiers Paying First Visit of Season Here For A Clash With The St. Louis Stars. Ladies Free Tues.

LOCALS IN SECOND PLACE

Manager Taylor Has Speedy Youngsters Fighting For Lead, Only Two And One-Half Games Behind K. C.

The Indianapolis A. B.'s will arrive in St. Louis Saturday morning for their first series of the year with the St. Louis Stars, starting Sunday and ending Wednesday. Should a game be postponed on account of rain, the series will be played on Wednesday. Ladies will be admitted free on Tuesday.

The Stars are in second place in the league race, despite the fact that their pitchers have not hurled consistently. The pitching has shown sporadic flashes of winning form, but not the kind that wins games. The batting of the team has been good in the running, and it is only two and one-half games behind the Champion Monarchs.

The Monarchs have rounded to a dangerous form now and will be hard to dislodge. The Kansas City team is pitching in Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas, while the Stars will be attempting to win on the home ground at the expense of the A. B.'s.

The effort will be interesting and worth the weary travel of the fans throughout the series. All games will be called at 3 p. m.

DONALDSON AND COOPER PASS THROUGH ST. LOUIS

Billy Donaldson and "Doc" Cooper, National League winners, passed thru St. Louis Thursday en route to the Detroit Tigers. Cooper, who won his first game in the K. C.-Chi series, has worked as satisfactory that he received the "OK" of the league president, and the "Chi" is now a full-fledged regular.

SUMMER HIGH SCHOOL TRACK AND FIELD MEET

The annual Interclass Track and Field Meet of the Summer High School was held Friday, May 25, at Tandy field. As in former years, the performance of the students was most to be commended. A keep sport of rivalry was shown among the boys and girls and several records were broken.

It was interesting to note that Volney Dickinson, in defeating Jasper Hickerson, cleared the distance in 10.15 seconds, a mark that has not been reached by any high school boy in the city this season. As was expected, Brister Griggs won the mile and in doing so broke the record of the old record holder, Hayden, a new figure in High School Athletics, created a new record for the mile, which he cleared the bar at 9.1. 6. In Langdon did well on the weight events, broke the record of the mile, which was greatly missed during these events.

A great number of new faces was seen in action and in all about 300 boys and 50 girls took part. Marvin Cook was the highest point for the girls and in the mile, which was captured the coveted all-around 8 for the girls.

JUNIOR IDEAS

EDITOR'S NOTES

Do It Now

Tasks are often allowed to "bribe" you for days, or a time might be accomplished in a few minutes. If we would only take the preliminary steps and get started, we should find that after we once get at it the task is smaller than we thought. We always have some thing we intend to do, and which is immediately necessary—some news for publication, which requires certain information to be looked up, an investigation to make concerning some of the activities of the Kewpie, a bit of reorganization of a story which you have written for publication, and that task will "bribe" you, perhaps for several days and even weeks.

We often think that to perform these tasks would take more time than we can at the present time devote to it or that we don't know just what changes to make, and want to think it over.

After a while the lapse of time has grown so great that we are unable to get started of ourselves for doing, and then we take hold of it, and the task is accomplished before we realize it. It is therefore largely a question of getting at it. We begin by doing the smaller things and the larger ones take care of themselves. It would have been just as easy, or easier, to have done it several days before, because we would not have to offer excuses and it would have taken no more time than now.

The Kewpie is fortunate who avoids letting such tasks "bribe" over him, and who takes delight in keeping them cleared up, so that he can turn his mind freely to new work.

Are there any Kewpies who reach the standard of "doing it now"? Yes, but only a few.

Giggles

Two old couples were seated in their cozy little room, and after supper, as usual (peppermint cups). The old man said to his wife: "I can drink more water than you."

"No, no," came the reply from the old lady. "The contest began when you took a cup from the same set of dishes and began. When the 'milkmaid' had drunk two cups she said to her companion, 'I think you can drink another cup full of water.'"

"Why this is only my third cup, and I can't drink any more," said the old man.

PUDDIN' JONES

By J. A. (Billboard) Jackson Associated Negro Press

Miller and Laxer, comedians who have under several hundred comedians, with their talents, are the University boys, whose advent into comedy was not predicted, but taken as the only open doorway to the theater; have never lost sight of their original purpose to dramatize the life of their people. The first of these was a number of manuscripts that were submitted to the producing director of the old Peking Theater, Chicago, then the only Negro house in the country. Since then they have written many. Miller's private show home is filled with complete shoes.

Every now and then, one is tried upon the public, as opportunity favors the stunner; and their high-spirited personal activities permit their availing themselves of the opportunity. To their credit, may it be said, that the ideas expressed in the plays show cogitatively that they are very careful to reflect the changing conditions of the race. They are observing writers.

On Monday, May 11, another of their offerings, Puddin' Jones, a farce comedy, was given its premiere. While the piece has none of the serious purpose that was evident in the Flat Below, a former offering; it does, like the Flat Below, deal with a modern condition, one that has had but few years of existence; and one of which the general public knows little. The Negro family of wealthy servants, Monday breakfasts, doesn't fear that the piece is "High-brow" or "Intellectual" for in this situation there is injected a comedy situation that would be a credit to Sandy Bixby, Billy Hiss and J. Bright, for he has sold or any of the other producers of the style of comedy drama that has become standard on the T. O. R. circuit.

The piece is played in three acts with our interior setting, by use of scene painters. The story is the address of an old fortune, who is being to another. The only avenue of escape from this loss and the disgrace of her deceased father's name, she has been told, is to marry a man who is known to her in Oklahoma, works under her interest, and is a friend of her father's. During this absence in order to avoid seeing Jim Osborne, the villain played by Monte Hawley in a most acceptable manner, she accepts the suggestion of a girl friend to take on a husband pro tem. It is this fellow who makes the story. Lorenz McLean plays the part. It is that of a jail breaking wife beater.

Puddin' Jones (McLean) happened to become husband on the road's day, and he promptly upon becoming the "betting" husband placed an advertisement for a cook, and his wife obtains the job. The ensuing complications are indeed funny, for the couple is a bit too strenuous and the opening was not the finished actor that some careful direction can make of him.

Edna Lewis Thomas, as Mrs. Courtwright, superbly continued further her right to be regarded as one of the most famous actresses of our group, and one who would be equally well regarded in any group. It so happens that her complexion is such that her well modulated voice would be well received anywhere.

George Duke as the lover, and Lena Broyles as the girl, friends of Mrs. Courtwright, were both newcomers, and as such may be commended as promising artists. Percy Verney as the role of a detective, got out of the part all of its possibilities.

The stage settings were assembled under the direction of Mrs. Bessie Miller, and she exhibited a rare taste in achieving a rich splendor in the comfortable home effect without any vulgar overdoing.
